TITLE: THE CALL FOR PROJECTS PROPOSAL FOR CULTURAL AND CREATIVE INDUSTRIES FOR OFF-FARM JOB CREATION TO BE FUNDED BY RWANDA ACADEMY OF LANGUAGE AND CULTURE (RALC).

0. Background

The Rwanda Academy of Language and Culture (RALC) is a public institution created under the provisions of the law N° 01/2010 of 29/01/2010 with the following main responsibilities: to safeguard, protect and promote Kinyarwanda Language and Rwandan Culture.

The 21st century will see the development of creative arts and creative industries as a boost to the economic growth of Nations where this has not taken root. In Rwanda, for too long, Arts and culture have tended to remain in the fields of entertainment, and communication channels to transmit socio-cultural messages through songs, dances, body shapes, sculptures, beauty and fashion.

Today, voices are raised from the public and artists themselves wondering on what could be done to make sure that artists benefit from their work and the country reaps from the benefits of that creative arts. This certainly would mean uplifting the economic life of the country.

In 2017, the Ministry of Sports and culture initiated the Sector Strategic Plan for Sports and Culture as an added field which will contribute to the economic life in Rwanda, an aspect that is new and longtime ignored. This 16th Sector contributive to national economy has come at the time when the Ministry of Sports and Culture and its affiliated agencies have labored tirelessly to boost cultural clusters and bring them to a conclusive stand of creativity. This means institution set up, institution capacity building on the road to the value chain of productivity.

In the line of contributing to the development of creative arts and creative industries as a booster to the economic growth of a nation, Rwanda Academy of Language and Culture invites all Rwandan entrepreneurs who are able to develop projects related to culture and creative industries which shall generate jobs for Rwandans to submit their proposals. The best projects selected will be financed and monitored by a Steering Committee chaired by RALC with the aim of achieving its goals.
